Behind the Scenes.

"O—ah—yes; well, I s'pose you'd better walk in."

The servant conducted her up stairs to a sort of sitting room or boudoir where Mrs. Richley, a portly dame of about fifty, gorgeously dressed in a crimson silk, was sitting in her easy chair in front of a glowing coal fire. Laura was inwardly grateful that the gas had not been lighted, particularly when she observed that Mr. Florian Richley was lounging on a velvet sofa in one of the window recesses. Mrs. Richley looked up as the servant ushered in the new comer.

"Well, you g'wo man wi'at do you want?"

Laura's cheeks tinged at the tone of familiarity in which she was addressed, but she commanded herself to reply meekly:

"I have brought home your dress, Mrs. Richley."

"Where is Miss Waynall?"

"She is ill."

"Very well; lay down the dress; it is all right."

But Laura stood her ground valiantly.

"Mrs. Waynall would like the money tonight, madame—seven dollars on the old account and three for this dress."

"It is not convenient to-night."

"There, Florian," said Mrs. Richley, pettulently, addressing the young man in the Turkish dressing gown and elaborately arranged hair, "I told you just how it would be."

"What the deuce is the matter now?" unpolitely asked Florian, for the first time condescending to evince any interest in what was going on.

"Why, these impertinent dress-making people are always clamoring for money, just when you have drained me dry as fast as you can."

"Let 'em clamor, then, that's my advice," said Florian, without taking the trouble to move his head.

"Just give me back that ten dollar bill, Florian," urged his mother. "You can't want it to-night."

"But I do want it, I tell you," said Florian coolly.

"You are going to fritter it away in some of those gambling houses, to drink yourself stupid again," fretted Mrs Richley. "It's too bad, getting my money away from me just to indulge in those terrible habits. Why don't you earn money for yourself?"

"Easy, ma, easy," said the dissipated son, lazily dragging himself to a sitting posture. "Don't lose your temper, for it isn't worth while. This ten dollar bill is going to make my fortune. I shall take the lovely Laura to the opera to-night."

"Nonsense; this fine scheme will flash in the pan just like all the rest of your castles in the air. She won't save you."

"Oh, yes she will, my incredulous mamma, wait and see. I shall bring her to the point pretty soon. Then I'll pay you back the money with interest, out of my lady's bag of shiners."

"And will you leave off your gambling habits? Oh Florian, they will be the ruin of you yet."

"Perhaps not, perhaps not," returned the young man insolently. "That will be very much as I please."

Both the mother and her son had entirely forgotten the presence of the young girl who was standing in the dusky shadows near the door, until this moment, when Mrs. Richley, turning sharply around saw her.

"What are you waiting for," she asked irritably. "I have already told you that it was not convenient to pay the money to-night—why don't you go about your business?"

Her cheeks were fl

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

TUESDAY, June 2, 1868

FOR PRESIDENT,
ULYSSES S. GRANT.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
SCHUYLER COLFAX.

STRANGERS AND SUMMER VISITORS spending the season in Newport will find it to their advantage to consult the advertising columns of the Daily News before selecting their places of trade. They will find, carefully arranged under appropriate heads, the names and places of business of our leading merchants and artisans of all classes, and may thus be enabled to make, by comparison, more satisfactory arrangements than a limited acquaintance in Newport would otherwise allow.

The National Ceremony.

Reports are from all parts of the country that the ceremony of decorating the soldiers graves was observed in almost every town and city.

Moved by a desire to pay a merited tribute to the fallen defenders of our country, men of all ranks and all parties have joined in the solemn service. We are glad to notice that no attempt to make political capital out of the occasion was anywhere undertaken, so far as we can learn from the published accounts. It was not, as some feared it would be, allowed to degenerate into a partisan affair, but was kept on the high and noble platform on which the war was prosecuted. We trust the day will always be observed as appropriately and as generally as at this time.

POLITICAL.—The Chicago Tribune speaking of the attempt of some foolish newspapers to keep up a ferment about impeachment, earnestly advises "every Republican who desires the election of Grant and Colfax, to cease bellowing and pawing the ground over the old tragedy and go to work for the Republican ticket." It adds that it knows that neither Gen. Grant nor Mr. Colfax approve of this intestine fury, and that it has good ground for believing that they heartily disapprove and discountenance it—We have no doubt of this fact, nor can there be any doubt that the Tribune's advice is timely and good. Nothing but harm can come of this constant attempt to prolong the public excitement in this impeachment business.

Vallandigham, through the Dayton Ledger, administers a sharp rebuke to those Democratic newspapers which are opening the canvas by assaults upon the capacity and military services of Gen. Grant. He speaks of this as "the weakest and most foolish thing that the Democratic orators can do." The strength of the Democracy in the canvass, he thinks lies in the fact that the country wants a statesman rather than a soldier, for President. If they overlook this consideration, and try to run any soldier against Grant, they will throw away their chances of success. That is true.—The fact is they have no chances if they don't run a soldier, and they throw them away if they do. That is rather a difficult dilemma.

It is stated that the Senate Finance Committee is averse to taking up the Schenck tax bill now, because many of its provisions are objectionable, and it cannot be passed before October. All agree that a brief measure, including a few prominent articles, must pass.

The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Tribune says that it is alleged that Horatio Seymour, George Pendleton and George B. McClellan mean to write letters to the Democratic Fourth of July Convention, urging Hancock for the nomination by acclamation.

Speaking of Presidential nominations and the claims of Northern Democrats "who kept their political faith and integrity under all the trials and temptations of the late war," the Mobile Register says: "But there is another class of men, whom people appear to forget, and to whom our obligations are still higher. This class includes Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee, Joseph E. Johnson and a few others of the same sort. If we are to discard all considerations of policy or availability, why not go to the fountain head of principle or sentiment and nominate one of these at once?"

Gen. Grant on his Muscle.

While at West Point, Grant was "run on" by the older scholars, according to the custom of that institution. He endured a good deal without resentment, until one days being on mock parade, he was insulted by the captain of the company, when he stepped from the ranks, threw off his jacket challenged the captain to fight. Abbott tells the story as follows:

Such a challenge could not be declined, all the company looked eagerly on; the captain soon succumbed beneath the sturdy and swift falling blows of Grant, and cried for quarter. He had been very soundly whipped before his pride would permit him to yield.

The young champion not at all fatigued, and showing no excitement over his victory, turned to the lieutenant and said very blandly to him:

"It is now lieutenant, your turn, perhaps you would like to try to revenge the captain. I shall be happy to meet you."

The lieutenant, who had taken an active part in the insolent jokes upon the young cadet, could not in honor refuse. To have shown a coward's discretion would have exposed him to the endless jeers of his comrades. Grant made short work with him and gave him a very thorough thrashing.

He then, with apparently as much composure as if he had been simply attending to ordinary duties, turned to his comrades, in line, and said:

"Who comes next? I want peace, but I am willing to fight the whole company, one by one, if that is necessary to gain peace." His comrades now greeted him with three enthusiastic cheers. They came forward and shook him by the hand declaring that no one possessed of so much pluck should longer be subject to their annoyance. It was in reference to this offer to fight the whole company that he received the nick-name of "Company Grant." This name he retained until on a memorable occasion he changed it for "Unconditional Surrender Grant."

WILL THEY RESIGN?—Chief Justice Chase and President Johnson are candidates for President. Why do they not then resign their present positions? Since they do not, let their supporters cease calling on Gen. Grant to resign the post in which he has served the country so well!

Letter from Providence.

May 30 1868.

The Streets are thronged with children, bearing flowers.

Men with baskets of Floral offerings are moving to and fro.

At the headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic, the carriages in waiting are garlanded with roses, with festoons of spirea, flowering almond, and ferns.

Aids with clanging sabre are galloping hither and thither. Comrades in blue and hurrying past. The tolling bell, the boom of the distant gun, the paralyzed business of the city, are so many tongues to remind us that this day and hour is to be Sacredly embalmed in our hearts, and whilst strewing flowers upon the "passionless mounds" of those sleeping beneath the flag, we are also reminded, that the strife, the tramp, the bivouac, the field, the shout of victory and pursuit of retreating foes are over, that the scried ranks of the living are "filled with gaps," that stout men and stout hearts now "living in historic pages" no longer respond to the roll call. Be it our duty then, to baptise the past and present, with flowers, to drop the tear of remembrance upon their graves, to garland their tombs with

"Emblems of our great resurrection, Emblems of the bright and better land."

Whilst the drum beats the long roll and they heed it not, whilst the old flag grim with smoke and battle is borne aloft by their old comrades and they see it not; whilst the warm throbbing hearts receive no response from the cold and pulseless hearts of the dead, this tribute, this Sanctification, is due from those that survive, until the great wave of life lifts them

"Up to that better world on high
For which we wait."

We fear weather items are stale. Saturday, it was pouting and pouring. It is a redeeming point however, that it chooses the Sabbath morn as an usher for its new born loveliness. At 12 o'clock Saturday night the moon was struggling through the fleecy clouds. At sunrise Sunday, the soft south winds freighted with balmy odors promised a charming day; the birds seemingly never more beautiful, the full leaf of the trees never more velvety, whilst earth, air, and sky sparkled with jewels.

The ladies taking advantage of the occasion appeared more lovely than ever in their "airy, fairy, feathery nothings." If any of the Newport bachelors are connoisseurs of beauty, let them come to Providence and note from our windows, the beautiful complexions, the damask rose of the cheek, the flashing eyes, the rosebud mouths of our city belles, and bachelordom will be buried in the tomb past resurrection. We hope the lady readers of the News will not misunderstand us, as they are also beautiful. The palm however belongs to the ladies of this city. We would not dare to utter the thought however, were not all of our Newport cousins married.

Among the petitions to be acted upon by the present Legislature, is one for tunnelling the river thus connecting the 3d and 5th wards of this city. Experiments are now being tried in Chicago with cast iron tunnels. If successful, these may be adopted here as a bridge or tubnell is a necessity and will be a great public improvement, and convenience.

The annexation of new territory will enable the city to take steps at a very early day, to make the Field Point farm a "Central Park." The Pawtuxet road affords a charming drive out of the city. The race park is included in the annexation. It can be converted into splendid drives. Real estate already feels the impulse. The Estate of the Hon. Joseph Sweet near the city lines has been offered for sale within a year for forty thousand dollars. Within a week fifty thousand dollars has been offered for the same property. EASTON.

GRATUITOUS ADVERTISING.—We are always glad to aid every good enterprise that is undertaken by our citizens, but we find it utterly impossible to work gratuitously for all the religious, charitable, educational, moral and festive associations that have a place among us. To do so is to occupy a large share of the energies of the office without any suitable return. A Daily paper in Newport, to be sustained, must have the support of the whole community, and the proprietors must not be expected to work for nothing. We find it utterly impossible to meet the expenses growing out of the publication of the News, if we yield to the the opinion expressed by those who have given the subject no thought, that we are to advertise without pay in all cases where the object is for religious and charitable purposes. We should be happy to do so if it were at all practicable, but as a large proportion of our work is of this class we are compelled to charge for it. Advertising by notices in the reading columns is the most valuable of all, and must come under the general rule. Our friends, therefore, will please not ask us to publish cards, notices, resolutions &c., except as a matter of business, when we will make the rates as low as possible.

SPEAKER COLFAX'S NOMINATION.—"Aggate," in the Cincinnati Gazette, has the following notice of the nomination of Mr. Colfax's friends:

Mr. John D. Defrees, who has been Colfax's confidential manager through the contest, may congratulate himself upon the remarkable accuracy of his calculations. After midnight on Wednesday night he assured me that Colfax would be nominated on the fifth ballot. It is evident that he counted on the precise course which Pennsylvania took, and more than probable that he had grounds for such calculations. Defrees has managed the contest very quietly and adroitly. It is noticeable, too, that it was done on strict temperance principles. For a marvel in such affairs, it was observed that not a drop of liquor of any kind was to be had around the headquarters of the Indiana candidate. It will be a good thing if the result shall help to banish the not very creditable practice of urging each candidate's claim over a great array of bottles.

LOOKING AHEAD.—The New Bedford Standard says, a farmer of Fairhaven, aged about eighty years, is building a fence, in which he uses some locust and some cedar posts, to see which will last the longest.

About Home.

FRENCH MAN OF WAR.—A large French ship, the Jean Bart, arrived in the outer harbor this morning. She was here two years ago, and will be remembered by many of our citizens who then visited her.

ENGLISH YACHT.—The English Yacht Uraley having crossed the Atlantic to New York, put in here yesterday. She is now bound to Halifax.

SOMETHING NEW.—Three days of pleasant weather in succession. And yet it is not more strange than true.

A RUSH.—It is said that more than twelve hundred passengers went to New York last night by the Newport line. This would indicate that the people are taking advantage of low fares.

The Newport News thinks that "Mr. Chase ought to be nominated by somebody or something." Why doesn't the News nominate him?—N. Y. Citizen.

One good and sufficient reason why we do not nominate him is that we have a better candidate in the field. The News was the first paper in Rhode Island if not in New England that hoisted the name of Grant and we are satisfied to let it remain at the head of our columns. Why don't the Citizen nominate him. The Democratic party seems in want of a candidate.

One of our evening contemporaries spoke of Mayor Parker's inaugural address to the City Council of Newport, as a 'valedictory address.' This reminds us of the writer who sought to wax eloquent over a growing sunset scene, one of the features of which was "birds chanting their matinal songs in the soft twilight."

We clip the above from the Providence Herald and suspect the mistake is this time with the Editor of the Herald, rather than with the contemporary spoken of. According to the best information which we have on the subject, Mayor Parker did not deliver an "inaugural" on that occasion, but very properly left it to his successor Mayor Atkinson. He did, however deliver a "valedictory" address.

The Herald rejoiced too heartily over the election of our Democratic Mayor to have forgotten it so soon.

TAUNTON.—A Handsome Income.—The Republican states that the income of Wm. Mason, Esq., of that city, as returned to the United States Assessor, amounts to the princely sum of 800,000 for the past four years, which is a larger aggregate, we believe, than that returned by any other person in Massachusetts in the same time.

The First M. E. Church at the Wier, Taunton, is to be enlarged, and the work has been commenced. The cost of the improvements is estimated at $12,000.

PROVIDENCE ITEMS.—The Herald says coal declined $1.25 a ton in that city yesterday,

Also that the Rev. Dr. Swain has resigned his pastorate on account of ill health.

The Rev. S. E. Evans is to be installed pastor of the First Congregation Church tomorrow.

THE KINGSTON MURDER.—It will be remembered that a brother of Alex. Holmes was recently murdered in Kingston, Mass. The affair has caused great excitement in that section of the State and for a time no clue could be found to the murderer. The surviving brothers offered a reward of $20,000 for his discovery and arrest and the authorities also offered rewards suitable to the occasion.

The officers have finally made an arrest at which the community was scarcely less startled than at the murder itself. At first no one could believe the suspected party guilty and even now there is a general conviction that there is some mistake in the matter. Mr. Andrews who is accused of the crime is a respectable, quiet citizen, a deacon in the Baptist Church, and a man of hitherto unblemished reputation. As the officers do not divulge the facts on which their suspicions rest there is, of course great excitement over his arrest. A special telegraphic dispatch of Saturday dated at Plymouth says Mr. Andrews, has been committed to the House of Correction in this town. This action is understood to be in pursuance of orders from Major Jones, Chief Constable. The arrested party waiving his right to a legal examination before committal, the popular inference is that the network of evidence is drawing closer around the accused, though the officers are very reticent respecting the affair, and the prisoner expresses confidence in an early vindication of his innocence. His demeanor is calm and self-possessed and the faith of his friends and intimate acquaintances that he is the unfortunate victim of circumstances and not a malignant violator of the law remains undisturbed.

J. H. Bradley, Esq., of Boston is retained as his counsel, and R. H. Dana, Jr., has signified his willingness to act also in the same capacity should his service be required.

The contents of the letter received on the fatal evening referred to in the former dispatch, and which was written by the prisoner, were to the effect that he (Andrews) should be in his garden during the early evening, at a later hour at the store and would meet Mr. Holmes at either place for the transaction of business previously talked between the two.

A suit of clothes which Andrews had worn on the day of the murder and laid aside on the following day, has been produced and the vest alone bore evidence of possible blood stains. A chemical examination of the garment has been made, but with what result is not known. The wife of the prisoner is completely overcome by the sad developments of the arrest, and it is feared may not survive the shock. The agitation of the community is deep and wide spread in regard to the tragedy and its sad denouement, and the incidents connected therewith are almost the only topic of conversation.

The Hon. James Emmit, Senator from Pike county, Ohio, proposes to present the sum of $100,000 for the purpose of beautifying the State House grounds at Columbus, provided the State will appropriate $30,000 put up a new fence and procure a landscape gardner.

An insurance company has been established by the employes of the New York post office, numbering over seven hundred names.—When a member dies, each of the survivors pay two dollars to his family, which makes the snug sum of $1400. The police and fire departments are about to inaugurate the same system.

More illicit distilling is carried on in Tennessee than in any other three States. Some counties have 30 or 40 stills whose owners violate the revenue law without hindrance, and a correspondent declares that he can count more than a dozen men who have lost their lives in endeavoring to enforce the laws.

DEATH OF KIT CARSON.—A telegraphic dispatch states that Christopher Carson, the celebrated guide, died at Fort Lyon of a rupture on Saturday, the 23d of May. He was born in Madison County, Kentucky, Dec. 24, 1809, and emigrated to the State of Missouri when quite young. He became a trapper, and as the outposts of the United States army were located at the West, he served in the capacity of guide and hunter and his memorable tour with Gen. Fremont made his name famous. In 1847 he was sent to Washington as bearer of dispatches from California, and received an appointment as Lieutenant in the rifle corps of the United States army, and since then as Indian Agent in New Mexico he has rendered valuable services to the United States Government. Carson accompanied the party of Indians on their recent visit to Washington.

BUSINESS.—A New York Correspondent writes that business men again look cheerful. It is too late, however, to work off much of the Spring stock. The large retail houses are now quite busy, and will so continue for a month, at least. By the first of July, most of the shoppers will be getting out of town, and dullness will then reign till September. The wet weather we had until yesterday, depressed the wholesale trade very much and a decline in prices was the consequence. There is no prospect of activity in this line until country buyers begin to arrange for the Fall trade, which, on account of the political excitement, is not likely to be heavy. I hear that a good many failures will probably occur in June, but this is an old story, and perhaps not a reliable one.

PORTRAIT.—The Germans in New York have already organized a Grant Club.

Rev. Dr. Breckinridge of Kentucky was one of the speakers at the Grant ratification meeting at Albany.

The States which have instructed for Mr. Pendleton are Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Oregon, California and Kentucky, and he is understood to be the first choice of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Maryland and Tennessee.

Mr. A. H. Stuart, an old Virginia Whig and Modern Democrat, has come out with the statement that Mr. Pendleton's views of finance and currency will be accepted to the South.

The Cincinnati Gazette hoists the Republican ticket as follows: "For President, Ulysses S. Grant of the United States. For Vice President, Schuyler Colfax of Indiana."

Business Notices.

MANY PEOPLE rather than take nauseous medicines. Ad who suffer from cou hs, colds, irritation of the bronchial tubes or tendency to consumption, will find in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry a remedy as agreeable to the palate as effectual in removing disease. The Balsam is a pleasant remedy; it is a safe remedy; it is a powerful remedy; it is a speedy remedy; it is a remedy that cures.

Nature is the Great Physician.

This is now admitted, by the medical profession, as a fundamental principle of healing science. It is wisely provided by the human economy that whenever anything is wrong in the physical system the natural forces of the body are brought to bear to expel the disease. The great aim, therefore, is to strengthen the natural powers. This has been kept in view by the skilful compounders of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, which operates to give free's vitality to all the organs of the body. The effect of this medicine upon the stomach, the liver and the kidneys, is prompt and decisive. The patient, who is wise enough to quit drugging and try the BITTERS, soon feels as if he had taken a new lease of life, and as he continues the use of the article, he is overjoyed to find the streams of health coursing through his frame. It is prepared with great care, and its component parts are entirely vegetable. It is free from the objections so often urged against preparations of the kind. As a MEDICAL AGENT it has no equal, while its pleasing flavor and healthful effects have made it a general favorite. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system, and its operations are at once mild, soothing and efficient. All who have used HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS attest its virtues and commend it to use.

Even those who are in the enjoyment of perfect health frequently have need to have recourse to medicine as a preventive of disease. We are never too well armed against the assaults of "the ills that flesh is heir to." In health or sickness this tonic cannot be taken regularly without giving vitality and elasticity to the system.

BEAUTIFUL AND OF UNIFORM EXCELLENCE. A well-known, safe, and speedy agent for restoring gray hair to its original color, for preventing the loss of the hair, for promoting its healthy growth and increasing its beauty, a gradual but certain cure for baldness, and an essential toilet requisite for all who prize that choicest gift of nature, a bountiful supply of hair: the above is said by all who use Mrs. S. A. Allen's Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle) Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar. my29—1m

Money invested in Live Stock is liable to all contingencies imaginable, and the amount to be paid for premiums is trifling, compared with the anxieties attending the uncertainty of animal life. Insure in the ÆTNA and secure yourself from loss from any cause.

AGE AND QUALITY are the two important requisites for good Bourbon whiskey. The Golden Sheaf Bourbon has both. C. A. RICHARDS & CO., 99 Washington street, Boston, largest Retail Wine and Spirit House in America.

THE UNION of aromatic, astringent and carminative barks, plants and roots, with a pure old wine, forms the SONOMA WINE BITTERS. All who have tried it are in favor of the union. Sold by all druggists and grocers.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Influenza, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Pre Disposition to Consumption, &c., &c.

This great remedy is too well known and is performing too much good to make it necessary to go into an elaborate discussion of its merits. Suffice to say that it still maintains its supremacy in curing diseases of the most obstinate character, and that all who suffer from the above complaints, after having tested this remedy, seldom have occasion to resort to other agencies to insure a perfect restoration to health.

From SAMUEL A. WALKER, Esq., of Boston,
The well-known Auctioneer.

To Seth W. Fowle.

My Dear Sir—Having experienced results of a satisfactory character from the use of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, in cases of severe cold, during the past two years, I am induced to express the full faith I have in its renovating power.

I was first induced to try this medicine as an experiment, about two years ago, in connection with the strong recommendation of a friend, who was willingly going with Consumption, and whose relief from the use of it enabled me of the great value in cases of colds and decline, and must clearly demonstrating, to my mind, its great value as a restorative, that may excite a fair trial to insure a grateful demonstration from the public.

Your ob. Humble servant,
SAMUEL A. WALKER.

$500 WILL BE FORFEITED BY DR. L. DIX if failing to cure in less time than any other physician, more effectually and permanently, with less restraint from occupation or fear of exposure to all weather, with safe and pleasant medicines.

BOTH SEXES, SINGLE OR MARRIED.

DR. L. DIX'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL OFFICE,
No. 21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass.,

is so arranged that patients never see or hear each other. Recollect the ONLY entrance to his Office is No. 21, having no connection with his residence, consequently no family interruption, so that on no account can any person hesitate applying at his office.

boldly asserts (and it cannot be contradicted, except by Quacks, who will do or say anything, even perjure themselves, to impose upon patients) that he is the only regular graduate physician advertising in Boston.

SIXTEEN YEARS

engaged in treatment of Special Diseases, a fact so well known to many Citizens, Publishers, Merchants, Hotel Proprietors, &c., that he is much recommended, and particularly to Strangers and Travelers.

To avoid and escape Imposition of Foreign and Native Quacks, more numerous in Boston than other large cities.

DR. L. DIX

proudly refers to Professors and respectable Physicians—many of whom consult him in critical cases, because of his acknowledged skill and reputation, obtained through so long experience, practice and observation

be not robbed and add to your sufferings in being deceived by the lying boasts, false presentations, false promises and pretensions of

who know little of the nature and character of Special Diseases, and less as to their cure. Some exhibit forged Diplomas of Institutions or Colleges which never existed in any part of the world; others exhibit Diplomas of the Dead, how obtained, unknown; not only assuming and advertising in names of those inserted in the Diplomas, but to further their imposition assume names of other most celebrated Physicians long since dead. Neither be deceived by through false certificates and references, and recommendations of their medicines by one near, who cannot expose or contradict them; or who, besides, to further their imposition, copy from Medical books much that is written of the qualities and effects of different herbs and plants, and ascribe all the same to their Pills, Extracts, Specifics, &c., most of which, if not all, contain Mercury, because of the ancient belief of its "curing everything," but now known to "kill more than it cures," and those not killed, constitutionally injured for life.

IGNORANCE OF QUACK DOCTORS AND NOSTRUM MAKERS.

Through the ignorance of the Quack Doctor, knowing no other remedy, he relies upon Mercury, and gives it to all his patients in Pills, Drops, &c., as the Nostrum Maker, equally ignorant, adds to his so-called Extracts, Specific, Antidote, &c., both relying upon its effects in curing a few in a hundred, it is trumpeted in various ways throughout the land; but, alas! nothing is said of the balance; some of whom die, others grow worse, and are left to linger and suffer for months or years, until relieved or cured, if possible, by competent physicians.

BUT ALL QUACKS ARE NOT IGNORANT.

Notwithstanding the foregoing facts are known to some Quack Doctors and Nostrum Makers, yet, regardless of the life and health of others, there are those among them who will injure themselves, contradicting giving mercury to their patients or that it is contained in their Nostrums, so that the "usual fee" may be obtained for professedly curing, or "the dollar" or "fraction of it" may be obtained for the Nostrum. It is thus that many are deceived also, and uselessly spend large amounts for experiments with quackery.

charges are very moderate. Communications secretly confidential, and all may rely on him with the strictest secrecy and confidence, whatever may be the disease, condition or situation of any one, married or single.

Medicines sent by Mail and Express to all parts of the United States.

TO THE LADIES.—The celebrated DR. L. DIX particularly invites all who need a Medical or Surgical adviser, to call at his Rooms, No. 21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass., which they will find arranged for their special accommodation.

Dr. DIX having devoted over twenty years to this particular branch of the treatment of all diseases peculiar to females, it is now conceded by all (both in this country and in Europe) that he excels all other known practitioners in the safe, speedy and effectual treatment of all female complaints.

His medicines are prepared with the express purpose of removing all diseases, such as debility, weakness, unnatural suppressions, enlargements of the womb, also all discharges which flow from a morbid state of the blood. The Doctor is now fully prepared to treat in his peculiar style, both medically and surgically, all diseases of the female sex, and they are respectfully invited to call at

TELEGRAMS.

Last Evening's Specials.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 1.

The induction of Gen. Schofield as Secretary of War occurred this morning. The General called first at the White House and had an interview with the President. Gen. Thomas called soon after and had a brief conference. The three then proceeded to the War Department, and were received by General Brice, Dyer and Townsend.

The latter surrendered the keys of office and all property in his charge, and in brief terms welcomed Gen. Schofield. The President remained a few minutes and after wishing the newly installed Secretary an agreeable term of office, departed. When the President left, Gen. Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, and several radical members of the House, went in to have a talk with the Secretary. It is expected that an order will be issued this afternoon.

The question of adjournment was brought up and after full comparison of notes, it was agreed to leave that question for the House of Representatives to settle. The feeling in the Senate is for an early adjournment, but if the House agrees at a caucus to-night to pass the tax bill in its present shape the Senate will acquiesce.

The House has under consideration this afternoon the tax bill, and will probably agree to hold night sessions in order to finish it in time for an early adjournment of Congress.

A resolution requesting the Secretary of War to select Messrs. Butler and Bingham to prosecute Jeff Davis was introduced and referred in the House this afternoon.

The Senate has passed resolutions tendering the thanks of Congress to Mr. Stanton. Mr. Pessenden warmly indorsed him as a great War Minister and regretted that he had been involved in the impeachment question.

It is believed that Gen. Stanoman, distinguished during the war as an efficient commander of cavalry, will be put in command of the First Military District vice Gen. Schofield, he being the ranking officer in that district. He has heretofore been in command of the sub-district of Petersburg.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

PEACE IN THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

June 2. 1868.

"Dom" says there was a pleasant time at the War Department yesterday: the President was there, and professes to be delighted with Schofield. General Grant called and remained over an hour, meeting some of his friends. When he came out, he spoke very highly in praise of the new Secretary.

Their relations are extremely cordial, and the former is aware that his almost unanimous confirmation by the Senate is owing in a great degree to Grant's earnest desire for it.

A PLACE FOR WOOLLEY.

Carpenters, yesterday were engaged in putting down a new floor, and otherwise preparing one of the Lascments of the Capitol for the occupation of Col. Woolley.

The caucus of the United States House of Representatives which met last evening decided nothing with reference to action upon the new tax bill, although a large majority appeared to think that the bill should be put through at this session.

600 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this at the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A Government Grant of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A Government Grant of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A Government Grant of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A Government Grant of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The GOVERNMENT PLACES the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy Trail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A Capital Stock Subscription from the stockholders, of which over Eight Million Dollars have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—Net Cash Earnings on its Way Business that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount,

Are Secure beyond any Contingency.

The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of

NEARLY NINE PER CENT,

AND IT IS BELIEVED THAT THEY MAY SOON BE AT A PREMIUM.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the date on which the last coupon was paid. Subscriptions will be received in Newport by HENRY BULL & CO.; NATIONAL EXCHANGE BANK, Newport; NEWPORT NATIONAL BANK; and in New York

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street,

AND BY

John J. Cisco & Son, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street,

And by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices or to any of the advertised Agents.

Would most respectfully solicit the attention of the

Throughout the country, to the

VERY HIGH AND RESPECTABLE TESTIMONY

THEY HERE SET FORTH.

They have in their possession a paper bearing the actual signatures of these leading Wholesale Druggists, besides the signatures of all the large Druggists in the principal cities in the New England States.

We, the undersigned, Wholesale Dealers in Drugs and Patent Medicines, &c., in Boston, would say in answer to an inquiry made by Messrs. C. A. RICHARDS & CO. that we believe the made by them, to be the very best article of the kind that has ever been placed before the American public, and that it meets a positive want, inasmuch as there was no other well known Bitter made with PURE CALIFORNIA WINE until Messrs. C. A. RICHARDS & CO. placed their article upon the market.

The formula for manufacturing these Bitters has been explained and exhibited to us by Messrs. C. A. RICHARDS & CO., and it has elicited our cordial approval as a thoroughly scientific preparation. Although but a few months have passed since its first introduction, we already consider these Bitters a standard article in our business.

is not convincing proof that our Bitters are fairly entitled to the place they now occupy as the best and most saleable Bitters now before the public.

C. G. HANDY & SON

WILL be ready and happy to exhibit on sale, to their friends and the public, their carefully selected NEW STOCK of DRY GOODS, on MONDAY MORNING, 28th inst.

These Goods were selected and purchased the present week, by the senior partner, assisted by an experienced Manitua Maker, from the extensive assortment of Messrs. Alexander J. Stewart & Co., Broadway, Chambers, and Reade streets,—and from Manufacturers, Manufacturers' Agents, Importers and Jobbers, and at Auction Sales in New York.

And in calling your attention to an examination of this Stock we would say, that Dry Goods have been purchased the present week at wholesale, at from 10 to 33 per cent. less than at any previous time for the past six years; consequently, you have reason to expect GREAT BARGAINS, and will not be disappointed, as our motto is "large sales (for Cash at the counter) and small profits."

We are confident, if you will call and look at the Goods before purchasing elsewhere, which we shall be too happy to show, whether you purchase or not, you will be tempted either to purchase or advertise us, as we claim to be the Peerless Cooking Stove.

HEAR what the Boston Journal says of this super or article:

Among the peculiar merits claimed for this stove is the complete ventilation and even temperature of the oven, making it a roasting rather than a baking oven, which is secured by a peculiarly constructed air chamber, which heats the air as it passes down behind the fire pot and into the oven, causing the meat to bake or roast perfectly and evenly, a great desideratum with a careful housewife: the perfect control which can be kept over the fire, and its cleanliness. This stove works equally well with coal or wood. These stoves are of different sizes, and are made plain or with an extension top, the latter being made with a large reservoir for hot water on the top and a warming closet underneath. Those of our readers who would like to keep up with the times would do well to call and examine this "Peerless stove." Sole agent in Newport,

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL OFFICE,

No. 18 1-2 Howard Street, Boston.

DR. W. F. PADELFORD gives exclusive attention to diseases of the genito-urinary organs, and all diseases of a private nature in both sexes.

DR. PADELFORD has gained a greater celebrity for the cure of the above diseases than any physician in America. His great success in these long standing and difficult cases, such as were formerly considered incurable, is sufficient to commend him to the public as worthy the extensive patronage he has received. Therefore, persons afflicted with diseases of the above nature, no matter how difficult or long standing the case may be, would do well to call on Dr. Padelford, at his office, and if not effectually relieved, no remuneration will be required for his services.

It is deplorable to witness some of the cases that are presented to him, where the disease has been driven into the system by quacks, the abuse of Mercury and Copaiba, &c., to break out again in the forms of spots and ulcers on the body, pain in the joints, sore throat, night sweats and emaciation.

DR. PADELFORD is admitted by the best medical talent of the country to have no equal, and it is an unusual occurrence for physicians in regular practice to recommend patients to him for treatment when afflicted with diseases in his specialty.

TO YOUNG MEN.

Seminal Weakness, or Constitutional Debility, brought on by secret habits indulged in by young men—this is one of the greatest evils that can befall man, for it begets disease of the heart, consumption, dyspepsia, emaciation of the frame, and finally ends in complete idiocy. By causing a rush of blood to the head, it often terminates in apoplexy.

Persons suffering from NERVOUS DEBILITY, especially those contemplating marriage, should lose no time in making immediate application.

TO FEMALES.

Females will receive the most scientific attention, both medically and surgically, with private apartments during confinement, and with old and experienced nurses, if they wish.

DR. PADELFORD'S FEMALE MONTHLY DROPS, for Suppressions, Irregularities, &c., &c. Warranted in all cases. Price $10—sent by express to all parts of the country.

The poor advised free of charge. Physicians or patients wishing his opinion or advice, by letter, and enclosing the usual fee, will be answered by return mail.—m&j1y
